WALTER F. BROWN FOR

Friends of Walter F. Brown of Toledo are backing him strongly in his campaign for the nomination for United States Senator on the Republican ticket. The belief, shared by the Newark American Tribune, that he can bring to his support all of the elements of the Republican party and that as a capable citizen with a business interests he still has the friendship of organized labor; seems to be prevalent. Among other qualifications that Mr. Brown possesses as proclaimed by his supporters are:

That his deep interest in agricultural affairs and his remarkable success in experiments in intensive farming would make him an effective senatorial representative of the farmers in Ohio.

That as the trusted friend of the late Theodore Roosevelt, his nomination for Senator Harding's seat will be received with enthusiasm by Roosevelt Republicans throughout the nation.

Above all, it is admitted by friends and opponents alike, that he is one man who, in all his public career, never went back on a promise and who never broke his word.

Mr. Brown is a resident of Toledo from his early childhood, a graduate of Harvard both from the classical course and the College of Law, has served on the Toledo Blade from "Cub Reporter" to Chief Editor. A successful lawyer, identified with important business affairs, a bank director, also on the directorate of large industrial concerns in Elyria, Cleveland and Toledo. President of the Toledo Humane Society for ten years president of the trustees of the Lucas County Children's Home; ornament and active in state politics for many years; he is certainly well qualified to be the successor of Harding as a senator and a supporter of Harding as president.

DON'T YOU SEE

It Costs More To Live, It Costs More To Die, But It Doesn't Cost Any More To Keep Well With Burgeon's Celebrated Remedies.

I was troubled with pains in my knees. I had got so bad I could hardly walk. I had doctored for about six months with the doctor and had got no permanent benefit.

The doctor was out of town on a vacation and I was opposed to patent medicine. Burgeon's Alternative Syrup was recommended and my wife bought a bottle and persuaded me to try it. After I had taken one bottle I saw benefits. I took seven bottles and I have been able to do work this winter and spring that I had not been able to do for some time, to the surprise of ourselves and our neighbors. William E. McQuillen 611 East

A TRAVELING MAN'S

EXPERIENCE

You may learn something from the following by W. H. Ireland, a traveling salesman of Louisville, Ky. "In the summer of 1888 I had a severe attack of cholera morbus. I gave the hotel porter fifty cents and told him to buy me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and to take no substitute. I took a double dose of it according to the directions and went to sleep. At five o'clock the next morning I was called by my order and took a train for my next stopping place, a well man."

A GREAT REMEDY

The merits of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy are well known and appreciated, but there is occasionally a man who had no acquaintance with them and should read the following by F. H. Dear, a hotel man at Dupuyer, Mont. "Four years ago I used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy with such wonderful results that I have since recommended it to my friends."

RETURNING GOOD FOR EVIL

The following story will be of special interest to the many Fulton County friends of ex-governor Frank B. Willis, candidate for the nomination as U. S. Senator from Ohio.

Citizens of Caldwell, Ohio are recalling that it was in this city that former Governor Frank B. Willis practiced law for the first time in his legal career and conducted his first case. It was during the campaign of 1914, following a Willis meeting in the court house yard.

Willis was being trailed by Cox henchmen, to harass him and disturb his meetings and while Willis was speaking to a large gathering at Caldwell, a stranger at the edge of the crowd, began holding him. Willis courteously responded, but the fellow became involved in a controversy with those near him and when Willis was about to retire late that night he was informed that the fellow had been arrested for disorderly conduct and was still confined.

Willis repaired immediately to the town prison and secured an interview with the prisoner. He learned that he was a resident of Columbus and the head of a small family. He admitted that he had been engaged to marry the daughter of a prominent citizen of Caldwell, Ohio, but that he had broken the engagement because of the extreme hot night and took steps to secure his release. He aroused the mayor from his bed and had light come to his office where a hearing was held at once. Willis appearing as the prisoner's attorney. He pleaded the fellow case and had him released without fine, Willis paying the costs.

The following morning Willis proceeded on his journey. On the same train was the stranger of the night before. Before reaching Newcomerstown, where the stranger changed cars for Columbus, he came to Willis and refunded the amount Willis had paid for his release. He assured Willis of eternal gratitude and Willis was quite convinced that his first attempt as a lawyer had won him, at least, one vote.

CREAM, BUTTER AND EGGS

Deliveries of cream are holding up well for the season of the year and as good pasture conditions are reported there, is every indication of continued production.

Prices on butter fat are higher than a year ago, but there has been little change from previous weeks.

Heavy importations of Danish butter have arrived at Eastern seaboard points within the last ten days.

A reasonable movement of poultry is reported and prices on fowl are generally reported a little higher.

Some increase in the marketing of young chickens has been noted which is usual at this season of the year.

Prices on eggs have been sufficient for current requirements and there has been no marked change in the price situation this week.

ETHEL HINTON.

ATTEND Chautauqua's Joy Night program (seventh night) and hear Miss Hinton and her College Gang. You must not miss this feature of the seven-day program if you want to hear new character sketches in song and dialect cleverly given by a charming young woman with rare good sense and phenomenal power to hold an audience.

Besides her successful work from New England to California, in this country, Miss Hinton has had wonderful experience in Europe. As an entertainer she appeared on all of the allied fronts and with the army of occupation in Germany. She told her stories between the heavy and light artillery positions on the American front during the Argonne drive, and also amidst the tragedies of the American hospitals.

Singing Band Announced For Chautauqua

DUNBAR'S ROYAL DRAGOONS.

ORGANIZED and coached under the personal supervision of the nationally known producer, Ralph Dunbar, the Royal Dragoons are to be heard in two grand concerts on Chautauqua's fifth day. The instrumentation of the company includes cornets, French horns, basses, oboe, bassoon, trombones, drums, etc. The singing of the organization compares most favorably with any of the famous Dunbar companies. In addition to possessing good voices, the men have been thoroughly trained in the dramatic and interpretative arts, making their program quite acceptable to the most scrutinizing critic.

Interesting diversions will be introduced in connection with the vocal and instrumental features of the Dragoon programs. There will be comedy a-plenty, for here is a veritable army of singing and playing fun-makers.
